FROM GENERAL NICKERSON

We received a letter in the latter part of February from our good Brother, General Nickerson who is now in Viet Nam in command of the 1st Marine Division. Brother Nickerson had just learned of our efforts to provide a class of 200 candidates in honor of Charlie Seifert and he gave his hearty indorsement to the plan with the following interesting quotation: "Would you be so kind as to give my very best wishes to Brother Charlie as I have learned recently of his illness. I trust he is better. It would be wonderful to make the 200 candidate class a reality for him and I wish I could be there to help. What I can do is pray for him and for your success."

He also goes on throughout this very interesting challenge to us who remain on the home front: "We are winning out here, trust you are doing the same back home."

It is the spirit of such able men as this that will make it possible for us to win our military and political battles abroad and at the same time to overcome our obstacles and difficulties at home.

"200 FOR CHARLIE!"

Assistant
SECRETARY'S PAGE

C. A. SEIFERT, 33°

Final Plans are now taking shape for the biggest and best Reunion we have ever held. The Ambassadors have been enthusiastic in their acceptance of the responsibility. They, together with the Court of Honour, the Club Presidents and their wives, have all participated in a dedication service in New Bern on Palm Sunday evening at which time they were duly installed in office as Ambassadors of the Scottish Rite in their respective Blue Lodge areas. Each of these persons has assumed an obligation to do everything possible to round up candidates for the next Reunion to honor Charlie Seifert.

We do not by any means subscribe to the idea that 200 is an impossible figure to reach. We know that it can be reached and we are fully expecting to reach it this Reunion. Success in this of course depends not only upon the Ambassadors, the Court of Honour and the Club Presidents, but as well upon all other active members of our Bodies. If every member will do his part we will have no fear of the success of this Reunion and we are confident it will be the best gift possible for Charlie.

We are counting upon you.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

R. L. Pugh

Secretary

"200 FOR CHARLIE!"

Bagpipe Skirls

Dear Brethren,

Time surely does fly. By the time the bag and I get one of these done and out of hand — it's time to start another. We just hope the time hasn't flown so fast that we miss the press. We really got cut short this month and this does make a difference. Of course we know what happened. Julius Ceasar got one of our days and Augustus got another. We also know we'll get them back, but who can wait until July and August to catch up on those two lost days? The press won't. So, we'll just hurry along after hoping that all of you had a wonderful Easter and that you're getting set for that "200 for Charlie" Reunion that's coming up.

Silence is sometimes the severest critic.

Live within your income, and you'll live without worry — as well as other things.

Bob: "My brother went hiking the other day, and while he was out in the woods he fell out of a fifty foot tree.

Rob: "Was he badly hurt?"

Bob: "Oh, no. He wasn't hurt at all. He had climbed two feet when he fell.

"I've just returned from a safari in Africa," bragged John.

"How was the hunting?" asked his stay-at-home friend.

"Not bad. I bagged some lions, leopards, and a potfor."

"What's a potfor?"

"To cook in, silly."

When you flee temptation, be sure you don't leave a forwarding address.

It is not so much how much you learn as what you do with what you learn.

"Grandma, I'm sorry you don't like my new skirt," said the coed, "but when you were a girl, didn't you have to set your cap for the right young man?"

"Well, yes, I did," said Granny, "but not my knee cap."

When told that Henry Ford had left an estate of over a hundred million dollars, the farmer shook his head and said, "Strikes me he must have had an awful savin' woman."

There was a time when a fool and his money were quickly parted, but now it happens to everybody.

Lifted from a current magazine — "I used to think I was poor. Then they told me I wasn't poor. I was needy. Then they told me that was self-defeating to think of myself as needy, that I was culturally deprived. Then they told me deprived was a bad image, that I was underprivileged. Then they told me underprivileged was overused, that I was disadvantaged. I still don't have a dime, but I do have a great vocabulary."

And now, Brethren, I close with a repeat. "No tax jokes this time. It isn't funny anymore."

Your piper,
Paul Stevens

TEMPLE TOMES

"IT IS THE GLORY OF GOD TO CONCEAL A THING: but the honor OF KINGS IS TO SEARCH OUT A MATTER." (Prov. 25:2)

Scottish Rite Masonry is a great fraternity. It allows one to interpret its symbolisms according to his own understandings. It has room for divergent talents, thoughts and opinions.

The word opinion stems from the Greek word DOXA. If one's opinion differs from another he is HETERODOX. If he has a parallel opinion he is PARADOX. If he has an in-line (straight) opinion he is ORTHODOX.

In our intercommunications we meet with many interesting opinions, interpretations and thoughts. For instance. Take that of our esteemed brother, and Masonic writer Joseph Fort Newton. Listen to what he says: (We quote, in part from his "THE BIBLE AND MASONRY.")

"For Masonry knows, what so many forget, that religions are many, but Religion is one—perhaps we may say one thing, but that one thing includes everything—the life of God in the soul of man, and the duty and hope of man will precede from his essential character. Therefore, it invites to its altar men of many faiths, knowing that, if they use different names for 'The Nameless One of a Hundred Names', they are yet praying to the One God and Father of all; . . ."

Searching on, we find "A MASONIC CREED . . ." (from The Masonic edition—Brevier text A. J. HOLOMAN, Philadelphia, Pa.)

"As an expression of the simplest form of faith of Masonry, not an exhaustive, but incontrovertible and suggestive, the following is

THE MASONIC BELIEF

A. There is One God, the Father of all men.
B. The Holy Bible is the Great Light of Masonry, and the rule and guide of our faith and practice.
C. Man is immortal.
D. Character changes destiny.
E. Love of man is, next to the Love of God, man's first duty.
F. Prayer, communion of man with God, is helpful."

The foregoing "creed" gives exercise to the freedom of thought and expression within the wide angle of Masonry.

HETERODOXICALLY we shall use the first and second:

A. With respect to the lodge and in a strictly fraternal sense, this can be used effectively in our earlier Masonic workings, but . . .
B. We find this to be not in total harmony with the first, or (A).

PARADOXICALLY we go along with the opinion that the Holy Bible is our rule and guide for our faith and practice. Now, our Holy Bible says that there are TWO Fatherhoods:

God manifested as Jehovah says—(John 8:38) "I speak of what I have seen with my Father, and you do what you have heard from your father." And the Pharises retorted, "We have one father, even God". (v. 41) But Jesus (Savior) said "If God were your Father, you would love me, for I proceeded and came forth from God. . . . You are of your father the Devil, and your will is to do your father's desires. . . ."

Man's natural reply is "Aren't we all descended from Adam, and wasn't he created by God? Since God created the race are we not all His children?" That is true, in the sense of man's first estate, but man lost that first estate and of necessity must be re-created, born from above, as is so beautifully illustrated in the twenty-sixth degree of our Scottish Rite. This is what Scottish Rite Masonry is trying to teach us. Read on:

"To all who received Him, who believed on His Name, He gave the power to become the children of God." (Jn. 1:12)

Now, our fraternal (lodge) brother becomes our true re-created brother and Scottish Rite Masonry reaches its "shining hour" and we who were HETERODOX, by a beautiful PARADOX become ORTHODOX.

"200 FOR CHARLIE!"

CHALLENGE TO THE NEW AMBASSADORS PALM SUNDAY SERVICE

On Palm Sunday afternoon, March 19th, 1967, the Scottish Rite Bodies presented a program in the Temple for the benefit of three large and active groups of the official life of the Temple. These groups were the members of the Court of Honour, consisting of our 33° members and the Knights Commander of the Court of Honour, the newly appointed Ambassadors who include Ambassadors from the Enfield Bodies totaling about 130 in number and the Presidents of the various Scottish Rite Clubs in the jurisdiction. All of these Brethren together with their wives had been invited for the special program.

At this time we were honored with the presence of the Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina, Most Worshipful Brother Arnold J. Koonce, Sr., and Mrs. Koonce from High Point. Worshipful Brother Watson Sherrod, Secretary of the Enfield Scottish Rite Bodies and Mrs. Sherrod were also with us for the occasion.

The Auditorium program began promptly at 5:00 o'clock and consisted of four tableaus taken from climatic experiences in the life of Christ during his last week on earth. These four tableaus or scenes were:

1. Christ in the Garden of Gethsemane
2. Christ before Pilate
3. Crucifixion
4. The Resurrection

The direction of the program was under the skillful artistry of our Director of Work, Brother Charles T. Midyette, Jr., 33°. As each scene was being presented on the stage it was accompanied with a beautiful and appropriate solo by Miss Catherine Latta, selected scriptural references by the Rev. and Brother R. D. Shinkle and meditation by Rev. and Brother Charles E. Williams. Brother Arvid Snornieks was at the organ throughout. The auditorium was filled and additional chairs had to be brought in to accommodate the crowd. The program lasted slightly more than an hour and was said by many to have been the most inspirational program they had ever seen. This program did mark a highlight in the history of our Scottish Rite Bodies and it is expected that twice a year hereafter preceding each Reunion a special program of this type will be presented.

Following the program a delicious banquet was served in the Charlie Seifert Banquet Hall at which time W. L. Adams, 32°, K.C.C.H., Venerable Master of the Lodge of Perfection, presided. Brother Adams announced that this banquet service was for the purpose of dedicating and consecrating the newly appointed Ambassadors. He said also that these Ambassadors were appointed for a period of one year and that a reappointment during the succeeding year would depend upon the extent of their service during this year. He then called upon Brother Charles T. Potter, the retiring Venerable Master, to conduct the dedication service. Brother Potter then called upon the Ambassadors and their wives to stand while he asked their assent to the obligation of an Ambassador.

Following this consecration ritual all the Brethren present were challenged by the Secretary to examine their record of the past five Reunions with respect to the number of candidates they had obtained and to aspire to a goal for the forthcoming Reunion that would insure a class of more than 200. Each group present accepted the challenge and if it is possible to judge the approaching Reunion by the enthusiasm demonstrated on this occasion, the 200 mark will be easily achieved.

"200 FOR CHARLIE!"

From The Classroom

BY R. L. PUGH, 33°, CLASS LECTURER

KEEP YOUR MIND FREE

It took the world many thousands of years to discover there can be no liberty, no freedom, no independence for man until his mind is free. The mind of man is where the seeds of liberty grow. The marvelous fruits of liberty are those achievements of minds upon which no interdiction has been laid by anybody; minds probing into philosophy, religion, social practice, economic development in all ways that are beneficial.

Therefore, beware of any man or institution who declares you must believe this or that simply because he or it says it is so and you have no other choice.

History is a long recital of the sorrows of man brought about by ambitious men or institutions who tried desperately to fasten that conviction upon the human race. Sometimes the effort was born of purely political ambitions. Sometimes its roots lie in religious soil. But always the end aimed at was the same thing — the complete domination of mankind, subjecting all peoples to the absolute rule of one or a few human beings who believed themselves capable or appointed to act as rulers over all.

Since the dawn of civilization, and perhaps before, man has had to battle against those who were determined to boss him, to tell him what he could do, could not do, what he must do and must not do. Against him has been arrayed every device cunning protagonists could think of. Not the least of these has been superstition. Man, emerging from the dark ages, limited in knowledge and learning, fell a ready victim to those who proclaimed themselves as the divinely selected ones to order man around as they pleased, to make him accept whatever arrant nonsense they declared to be the truth. Some of these accomplished their purpose by threat of physical punishment here and now; others did it by dooming the victim to eternal suffering in the world beyond unless he did and believed as he was told.

No man in the grip of any such system or pseudo philosophy is or can be free. He is not because some other man exactly as human as he himself rules him. There can be no physical or material freedom without intellectual and spiritual liberty.

Dictatorship of whatever kind is a static thing. Whatever progress it makes is done only because it has to. Dictators, whoever they may be, want to keep things as they are. They do that because every time the door to learning, to experimentation, to study and thought is opened it constitutes a danger to the dictatorship. That is why lands so long held under despotic rule are a century or more behind those where freedom exists.

Thus the first rule in setting up a dictatorship is: outline exactly what the people must believe and do; get absolute control over the minds. Once that is accomplished all liberty is gone. All human dignity has disappeared. Man becomes a grubbing chattel to live out his years in abject, unthinking services to some overlord who by force or trickery has become his boss.

Masonry is the enemy of that whole idea. Masonry opposes it in its entirety. Masonry stands for the positive and absolute freedom of the mind. Masonry accepts only one Deity, one Creator, and the Great Light which is His word. It is well therefore to keep alert. There is a world battle on for your liberty and in the beginning it is not to place you in chains or set a guard over you, but to gain the power to control your mind and your thought. Later it would be speech and everything else you are. Keep your mind free and then you will be safe.

"200 FOR CHARLIE!"

"With Mouth To Ear"

BY CLYDE McCARVER, 32°, K.C.C.H.

PLAGUED BY GOODNESS

If one wishes to be led down the path to mistaken ideas let him embrace the happy fiction that the most of human beings love to bask in the presence of perfect goodness. Just let him assume that the mysterious voices and strange actions one hears and sees today are simply the evidences of demented minds!

Each of us has, in his own manner and according to his own religious teachings, observed Maundy Thursday in some particular place. In the presence of the teachings of this soul-searching lesson one is aware that the Man of the Cross is a sort of plaque on the face of the earth! He is one of the most disturbing influences this world has ever known. There is something in the best of us that reasons: "What a relief it would be if I could just live my life and not have the examples of this Man eternally before me!" The business man is ever judged by the principles of honesty which this servant of mankind held for himself. Our homes and those who live therein are, sooner or later, judged by the type of "give and take" which were so much a part of His life. We come to recognize that the cares and pressures which infest the day are no longer reasons for explosions of temper or wrath! Our youth, constantly exposed to the variety of temptations which we of the last generation never knew existed, sooner or later must measure the standards of conduct by that of this solitary figure who speaks from a cross —a cross which was borne simply because of his refusal to compromise with life.

We know now that the presence of perfect goodness makes us aware of our bondage. It threatens to take away those obsessions which seem to be so much a part of us. In the midst of this perfect goodness, we are uneasy and often caused to worry "how my life is spent." It took me many years to fully realize what Tennyson had in mind when he observed, with somewhat of a sense of longing, that "the cattle did not worry over their sins." Of course they do not! They are cattle! But, you and I are the sons of God. We have a soul which is eternal—which is a part of God, Himself—a soul which can respond to God's will. We have the ability to rise above ourself and to emulate that perfect goodness. It is when we fail to do our best that we "worry over our sins."

Rev. Clyde G. McCarver, 32°, K.C.C.H.

Unless you and I can somehow understand that, we will never be able to detect the nervous defiance which underlies the major criticisms of perfect goodness today. We are being told on all sides to "Put aside the impossible dream of love, brotherhood, and peace." "Exercise a little moderation and common-sense". They tell us that, then, we shall be free from these tormenting longings. I suppose that they would be right were it not for the fact that a man can not escape himself. Many have tried and have failed! You see, when we stand before perfect goodness the tender spots of our life are touched and quickened.

We, the reasonably polite, who ask only a reasonable degree of success and reach it without too obvious a display of ruthlessness—we especially hate to come into the presence of perfect goodness. The moment we catch a glimpse of this goodness, at that moment we come to realize our own unworthiness! Like the prophet, Isaiah, we must cry "Woe is me, for I am a man of unclean lips and I dwell amongst a people of unclean lips!"

At this point it is well to remember that the same goodness which makes us uneasy in the awareness of our individual situation, brings peace and power when we allow it to triumph in our life. This is the great teaching of our Craft. We are constantly invited to reflect on our life—to take an accounting thereof—to rededicate our "whole man" to the living and teaching of perfect goodness. If our testimonies and precepts of Masonry are genuine, we shall take them with us into the temptations and buffetings of the age in which we live. This is the only age in which you and I have the privilege of living this perfect goodness—of whispering its good secrets into the ear of a brother—of opening doors for the blind who seek true light. This is our call! This is our privilege! This is our judgment! God have mercy on us when we are no longer plagued by perfect goodness!

"SPIRITUAL REFRESHMENT"

Ed Blair, 33°

There is a certain amount of skill involved in living; knowing when to let go or when to take hold. The great leaders of the world really have been those who knew when to withdraw from the battles of life and renew their strength. Individuals must at times, stop, pause, refresh themselves and take in resources, so as to better enable them to face the issues of the time in which we live. Moses went to the desert, Paul went into Arabia; Jesus went down and sat by the sea-side. The Master would say, "I must go aside and rest for awhile." "The wind blows where it will and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know whence it comes or whither it goes; so it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit."

This is a Spiritual Universe. There is no need for life to go stale or fall flat. I say to everyone, that Scottish Masonry provides the richest and fullest in terms of Spiritual Refreshment. The atmosphere of every degree from the 4° through the 32° is charged with the Spirit. One cannot help but see beyond himself and feel the presence of something bigger, better and greater than we are.

There can be no doubt of it, we do feel better and refreshed if we can be placed where God can break in upon us and like the wind from the sea, it cleanses, invigorates and freshens us.

We do find ourselves limited by our own air-tight separations from the forces of God. Our ideas even become dogmatic; we are right and everyone else is wrong. Our daily life becomes boring. It is a routine of habit in which tasks have lost their meaning. Our social life becomes limited; it is hard for us to give real communion with someone outside of our little group. We, sort of, settle down to a dead level existence without dreams or hopes.

That is when we need Spiritual Refreshment; to go sit by the seaside and see and feel something of the Spirit. I get a thrill when in helping to put on the various Degrees; I see elderly men in the class taking the Degrees of our movement. It does my heart good and I say inwardly, "I am glad that he did." I know that Scottish Masonry has something to offer and I know that the best of us need to take time off and let the winds of the Spirit blow over our souls. Our horizon is the limit of our sight. Constantly we need to have the limits pushed farther away; the horizons widened, our look lengthened.

Ed Blair 33°, Havelock, N. C.

Let me put it simply by saying that many of us live provincial lives, limited even by what we see at our doorstep. Our horizons are limited and it does us good to go to church so that "all shores and all seasides" can be in our thoughts, not just our own. So it is with Scottish Masonry and it behooves us all, who have ascended the summit and seen the beauty and glory beyond to ask a friend to take time off for "Spiritual Refreshment."

DOWN ONSLOW WAY

Reynold Davenport, 32°, K.C.C.H.

Just a few more days and the April Reunion will be upon us. You can be sure that the degree teams have practiced, the stage crew is ready, and the dining room is once more prepared to wreck a lot of diets. The only question unanswered—the biggest question of all—is what have we as individual Scottish Rite Masons done to prepare for this reunion?

The individual Scottish Rite Masons throughout the jurisdiction of the New Bern Bodies hold the key to the success of the April Reunion. If we see to it that we get "200 for Charlie" we will have guaranteed our biggest reunion ever. Anything less than that will be less than what we can do and ought to do.

"200 FOR CHARLIE!"

REYNOLD DAVENPORT, 32°, K.C.C.H.
Jacksonville, N. C.

Here in Onslow we have a wonderful opportunity to contribute our share, and more. Our six lodges have raised many Master Masons since November. There are many Master Masons who did not make earlier reunions but who will go in April if we work with them. There are a lot of military Masons recently transferred to Camp Lejeune who are excellent prospects. We have a lot of things in our favor. The only thing that could be against us would be lack of proper effort.

We know that Brother Charlie Seifert is going into well-earned retirement in July. We know that during his many years of service to Scottish Rite he has wanted a class of two hundred more than anything else in the world. This, then, is our last chance to honor Charlie's wish while he still serves in an official capacity. Let's do it. 200 for Charlie.

"FROM UP THE NEUSE"

By John D. Charlton, 32°

Well, it looks like we are "a day late and a dollar short" again here in our consistory, or else we don't have time to give matters of importance to the well being of our youth the attention they deserve. Notice how, I put a "we" in the above sentence so I am not preaching, just trying to create some thought or fan a spark. As I read the March '67 issue of "The New Age" and noted the achievements of consistories in other states as they promoted DeMolay during the months of September through December of 1966 I wondered where we were, what we did, and if not, why not?

We are still working hard here in Lenoir County and in the surrounding area to reactivate our DeMolay Chapter, but help is sorely needed. We had a fine organizational meeting at St. John's Lodge No. 4 in Kinston on March 8, 1967, with approximately 40 boys plus parents in attendance. Now this is adequate evidence that our youth want such an organization as DeMolay, but it is going to take Masons to make it alive for them; this is our problem and where the consistory can help. Now when I say consistory, I am talking about the individual Scottish Rite Mason for you, not a set of boundary lines, are the consistory. The members in the Lenoir County area need the encouragement of members throughout the consistory to make this reorganization come about in a successful way. Each of you know that all Masons are not active, many wonder what Masonry is for and are honestly seeking to discover its usefulness. Won't you who are already involved come to our aid in supplying encouragement and those of you in the Lenoir County area investigate the program that DeMolay has to offer our youth and become a part of it — they need you, these youth of today who will lead tomorrow.

SCOTTISH RITE CLUBS

ALBERT PIKE SCOTTISH RITE CLUB

The "Albert Pike Scottish Rite Club" of Plymouth, N. C., held their regular meeting Thursday night, Feb. 9, 1967, at "Tetterton's Restaurant", Plymouth, N. C. A steak dinner was enjoyed by the Club.

The following members were present: G. R. Leggett, Sr., President; Frank Bickerstaff, Vice President; W. C. Chesson, Secretary and Treasurer. Other members: W. H. Leary, Benton Tetterton, Randy Waters, Bryant Harris, R. H. Lucas, J. L. Rea, Jessie Griffin, Philip Swinson, Hallett Davis, Hugh Brown.

Our next meeting will be at "Tetterton's Restaurant" Thursday night, March 9, 1967 at 7:00 P.M.

For generations we have been running like frightened children, up first one blind alley and then another. Each time we have told ourselves: "This path is the right one, this one will take us where we want to go". But each time we have been wrong.

One of the paths we chose was labeled "political freedom, we said, and the world will be a happy place if everyone has political freedom. Let us select our own government leaders and we shall have the kind of government that will make life worth living. So we achieved political freedom, but we did not achieve our better world. Our daily newspapers give us reports of corruption in high places, of favoritism, of exploitation, of hypocrisy equal to and sometimes surpassing the depotism of ancient Kings. Political freedom is a precious and important thing, but it alone cannot give us the kind of world we long for.

There was another very hopeful path marked "education", and many put their whole faith in it. Political freedom coupled with education will do the trick, they said, and we all rushed madly along the educational path. It seemed a bright, well-lighted, sensible path for a long time, and we traveled it with eager, expectant feet, but where has it led us? You know the answer. We are the most informed people in the history of civilization — and yet the most miserable. Our high school students know more about the physical laws of the universe than the greatest scientist in the days of Aristotle. But though our heads are crammed with knowledge our hearts are empty.

The brightest, most inviting path of all was the one marked "higher standards of living". Almost everyone felt he could trust this one to carry him automatically into that better and more joyful world. This was felt to be the sure route. This was the "press the button and you're there" route! This was the path that led through the beautiful full-color magazine advertisements, past all the shining new cars, past the gleaming rows of electric refrigerators and automatic washing machines, past all the fat chickens cooking in brand-new copper-bottomed pots. We knew we'd hit the jackpot this time! The other paths might have been false leads, but this time we had it!

All right, look around right this minute. At this very moment in history you see in America a country that has political freedom to an extent that is undreamed of in many parts of the civilized world. You see the greatest and most far-reaching public education system that man has ever created, and we are eulogized at home and abroad for our high standard of living. "The American way of life" we like to call this fully electrified, fully automatic, chrome-plated economy of ours — but has it made us happy? Has it brought the joy and satisfaction and the reason for living that we were seeking?

Or does that awful hollow feeling persist? Does every further discovery of the magnitude of the universe comfort you or make you feel more alone and helpless than ever? Does the antidote for human fear and hatred and corruption lie in some laboratory test tube, or in an astronomer's telescope?

If it is true that "for every illness there is a cure" then we must make haste to find it.

We are today a nation of empty people. We do not have to go back to ancient times to see what happens to a nation of empty people. We need look no further than the recent history of Germany, Italy, and Russia to see with what deadly speed nature fills up the vacuums that occur within us. Nature abhors a vacuum, but it is up to us as individuals to determine with what our inner vacuums shall be filled.

Unfortunately, we are living in an era which seeks the easy way, the do-nothing technique which relies on alibis to cover our failings. Let us quit relinguishing our responsibilities. Let us make those who represent us in office our servants, not our masters. This we can do by restoring our higher standards. Then we shall solve urgent problems in a lofty way, under ideals which are intellectually, morally and spiritually honest.

Let us, each of us, sincerely resolve to urge Scottish Rite affiliates for every Master Mason not now in our ranks. EAST CARTERET SCOTTISH RITE CLUB

The East Carteret Scottish Rite Club held its regular meeting on Monday night March 6, 1967. The meeting was called to order by Bro. Ernest Hill, president. A discussion was had to further the hopes of securing members for the Spring Reunion. Our up-coming Ladies Night was also discussed.

This being Ladies' Night, President Brothers welcomed all the ladies and visitors and candidates.

The shrimp supper brought out about one hundred and two to enjoy the supper and good talks by some of our members and also our speaker for the evening.

The minutes of the last meeting were read for information.

The president recognized Bro. Francis W. The president recognized the K.C.-C.H. members who are doing a good job for Scottish Rite Masonry.

Brother Robert F. Spence, 32°, K.C.-C.H., made some good remarks about Scottish Rite Masonry and explained the purpose of Scottish Rite Clubs mainly to recruit new members.

President Brothers introduced our speaker for the evening. Brother William E. Hinton, P.M. of Tidalwave Lodge No. 273, Portsmouth, Va. Brother Hinton is a K.C.C.H. member of the Portsmouth, Va. Consistory and takes an important part in the degrees.

After telling a few good humor jokes Brother Hinton made some good remarks on Masonry, something that is exciting and the higher you go in Masonry the more exciting it is and more light you receive.

We should remember the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man and live our Masonry in our world today.

Brother Brothers thanked Brother Hinton for being our speaker for the evening and stated he knew he was speaking for each one present.

The meeting was closed by prayer by Brother Bill Williams, member of Eureka Lodge No. 317, Elizabeth City, N. C.

NEW BERN SCOTTISH RITE CLUB

Since this article will appear in the April issue of the Bagpipe it seems only fitting that the subject should be the Spring Reunion. We are hoping this will be the biggest and best ever.

This reunion will be held in honor of that most eminent patron of Scottish Masonry, Charles A. Seifert, 33°. "Captain Charlie", as he is lovingly called by all who know him, has for more years than many of us can remember had a goal of two hundred candidates for a single reunion. Many times he has come close but not close enough. Therefore, the theme for this reunion will be "200 for CHARLIE".

Wouldn't it be wonderful if we could, if for only this one reunion, reach that magic number as a gift of love and devotion for this wonderful man. Well, the New Bern Scottish Rite Club vows to do everything possible to make this dream come true. Please help. Every candidate counts.

The New Bern Club takes this opportunity to extend the hand of welcome to all of our visiting brothers. Come to the reunion and bring a Candidate.

Our third meeting in 1967 will take place at 7:00 p.m. on March 20, 1967. The remaining meetings in 1967 will be held on: September 18, October 16, and December 18.

We suggest that you save the foregoing schedule in order that you may plan to attend every meeting possible. Members will be notified in advance the time and location of each meeting, and effort will be made to hold some of these meetings in various locations in Onslow-Lejeune during the year. All dinner meetings will be dutch. Your wife is invited to attend all dinner meetings for the remainder of the year 1967, as voted unanimously at our last meeting.

Membership in our club requires only that you be a Scottish Rite Mason and pay $1.00 annual dues, just enough to cover postage, etc. In order to update membership records, each member is requested to provide the Secretary with name and address for mail. Also, if you have not paid your 1967 dues, please remit. Scottish Rite Masons who wish to join the club are requested to advise the Secretary in the same manner.

Many of our Scottish Rite Brethren in the area are not members of the New Bern bodies and we do not, therefore, have their addresses. If you know of any such Brethren, please notify them of the March meeting. Better yet, bring them with you. This also applies to any New Bern members who, for some reason, may fail to receive their copy of this letter. Talk this meeting up; we hope for a large attendance. Please advise one of the undersigned, by card or phone, of your plans to attend in order that adequate space may be reserved.

Our club offers you a wonderful opportunity to enjoy fellowship with your Brethren, and an opportunity to work for Scottish Rite Masonry. An interesting program will be presented during each meeting but the agenda for each meeting will be such as to enable you to be home early. We think you will enjoy membership in the club, and we sincerely urge you to be with us on March 20th.

Sincerely and fraternally,

ONSLOW-LEJEUNE SCOTTISH RITE CLUB

The Onslow-Lejeune Scottish Rite Club held a meeting on February 20, 1967 at 7:00 P.M., at the Steak House.

Brother Frank Smith presided and Brother Bill Thomason gave the invocation.

Brother Smith opened the meeting by welcoming the members and their wives. A motion was made, seconded, and passed that we dispense with the reading of the minutes of the January 30, 1967 meeting. Brother Jessie Vail gave a report on the Membership Committee. Brother Bray brought to our attention the need of flag poles at our county schools. He advised that the Marine Corps would furnish the flags. The Special Events Committee, of which Brother Bray is a member, was asked to check into this. Brother Smith read a letter from the New Bern Lodge of Perfection No. 6, advising that the payment of $50.00 will be made to all clubs having the two required meetings prior to the Spring Reunion. The policy for the payment of the $50.00 for the Fall Reunion has been changed and will be paid only to the clubs who had the required candidates present at the Spring Reunion. Brother Reynold S. Davenport announced that Ladies Night for the Spring Reunion will be held on March 30, 1967 at 7:00 P.M., at the Jacksonville City Hall.

After an enjoyable meal the program was turned over to Brother Bray who spoke to us briefly about the war in Viet Nam. He then presented a film entitled "You in Viet Nam". This film took us on a trip to Viet Nam and showed the conditions in which the Vietnamese live and work. Brother Smith announced that we should invite all the new candidates, for the Spring Reunion, and their wives to the March 20, 1967 meeting. Meals will be furnished for the candidates and their wives.

Brother Bill Thomason gave the benediction and the meeting was adjourned.

Earl F. Manning,
Secretary-Treasurer

Scottish Rite Bodies as an expression of his love for the Scottish Rite.

Many of our Master Masons recall Brother Husman very well from the efforts he exerted some years ago and the roll of leadership he assumed in raising money from Masters and Past Masters of North Carolina Blue Lodges to build a cottage at the Oxford Orphanage which would become known as the Master's Cottage. He was amazingly successful in his efforts and if we are not mistaken the sum of $30,000.00 was received for that purpose from the Brethren in the State.

Brother Husman has thus had a long and honorable career in Masonry and he has demonstrated his love for the craft by his devoted service to worthwhile activities.

We congratulate the Raleigh Bodies on this donation of a much needed organ and we might dare to express the fervent hope that some good member of the New Bern Bodies might do likewise.

In Memoriam

When the last feeble steps have been taken,
And the gates of the Lodge shall appear.
And the beautiful songs of the angels
Float out on the listening ear,
Then all that now seems mysterious,
Will be plain and clear as the day,
And the toils of the road will seem nothing,
When we get to the end of the way.
